

Pep Boys Service Marks National Safety Month by Focusing on Safe Practices and Recognizing Incident-Free Stores

Philadelphia, Pa. – June 16, 2020 – Safety was always paramount in Pep Boys service bays, and now, more than ever, the company is focused on safe service. June is National Safety Month, as designated by the National Safety Council, and throughout the month, Pep Boys will be showing customers how team members stay safe while repairing their vehicles, along with the enhanced cleaning and protective measures implemented during the coronavirus pandemic. In addition, Pep Boys is recognizing its 331 stores that were incident-free¹ last year for one or more years, including four locations that are celebrating five years incident-free and another that is six years incident-free:

- Pep Boys Buckner; Dallas, Texas
- Pep Boys Radio Road; Leesburg, Fla.
- Pep Boys Union Park; Union Park, Fla.
- Pep Boys The Villages; The Villages, Fla.
- Pep Boys Rio Grande; Rio Grande, Puerto Rico

“Today more than ever, consumers are seeking companies they can trust, and the best way we can demonstrate our trustworthiness is to work safely,” said Brian Kaner, CEO – Service. “Safety is the first action for which we hold our Team Members accountable each day and we look forward to continuing to celebrate more locations’ incident-free achievements in the years to come.”

Throughout the month, Pep Boys social media channels will be posting safety content that also includes the National Safety Council #KeepEachOtherSafe hashtag as well as #SafeTechsGoFurther, which echoes the promise Pep Boys makes to its customers to go further so they can go farther.
